Rome, Tuesday, via Paris, Wednesday, July 28 .- The official statement from the headquarters of the general staff

"In the Aione valley, we are now in full possession of the heights on the right slope, having occupied Monte Lavanesch and the Pissona crest. From points dominating the opposite slope, the enemy's artiflery attempted to hinder the operations, but without success. In the Monte Nero regions, the struggle continues unabated, notwithstanding the fog. At Playa, the second operation us dertaken to enlarge the bridges is developing favorably. On the Carso plateau, the battle continued yesterday. Our troops advanced along whole front with great dash and boldness, conquering a strong position on San Michele, comman the greater part of the plateau After being subjected, however, to a violent cross-fire from the enemy's artillery, our forces were obliged to fall back below the crest where they are now maintaining their positions. On the center, we progressed toward San Martino. On the right wing, we completed at nightfall the cor of a position at Monte Dei, driving out the enemy, who was strongly entrenched. We made about 2,200 prisoners, including one licutementonel and 31 other officers. We took five machine guns, two small eannon, french mortars, quantities of rifles, amountaion, war materials and food, as trophics of a day of flerer fighting."
